Description

What Is a Compound Sentence? Matt Ellis. Updated on October 6, 2022 · Grammar. A compound sentence is a sentence that connects two independent clauses, typically with a coordinating conjunction like and or but. They're best for combining two or more self-sufficient and related sentences into a single, unified one

Compound Sentence Examples

- The cinema was sold out, so we watched a movie on TV.
- I'll have a week in Rome, or I'll go to Paris for three days.
- I really need a holiday, but I don't have the money, and I don't have the time.
- He's crazy! ...
- It's gone 10pm, and he still hasn't arrived.
- Our car broke down, so we took a taxi.

What are the rules for a compound sentence?

A compound sentence contains at least two independent clauses. These two independent clauses can be combined with a comma and a coordinating conjunction or with a semicolon. Here are a few examples: She completed her literature review, and she created her reference list.
